Why Swiss Valley Farms?

Farmer-Owned Heritage

As a farmer-owned cooperative, we have full control of our milk supply. You can trust that we will maintain consistency in the quality cheeses we produce.

Industry Veteran

With over 50 years of experience in the dairy industry, we've developed a reputation as a quality, reliable supplier of cheese. Additionally, we employ some of the best cheesemakers in the industry and it is their expertise that allows us to continually meet the high standards of quality our customers have come to expect.

Award-Winning Cheeses

We are a recognized quality leader, and you don't have to take our word for it -- Swiss Valley Farms cheeses have been recognized at state, national and international contests for years. We are constantly updating our ever-growing library of awards. You can view them at <http://www.swissvalley.com/business/awards.cfm>.
